

STINA KAYSER

General Counsel and Principal

Stina Kayser is a legal counselor, real estate development professional and corporate leader. Her skill in deal structuring, operational oversight, and team-building has been developed through both her legal practice and her experience as a company owner and operator. As an Urban Villages principal, she participates in all levels of company management and strategic decisions. As general counsel, she is an advisor to the board of directors and oversees all the company's legal activities, including real estate purchases, sales and financing; landlord tenant issues; investor and lender relations; entity and organizational structuring; corporate governance; risk management; and human resources. Ms. Kayser is the 2016 President of CREW Denver. She also serves on the Board of Directors of the Denver Police Foundation and Wild Seed Project. She is the recipient of the CREW Denver Women of Influence Award (2009) and the Denver Business Journal Outstanding Women in Business Award in the Real Estate Category (2016).

JON BUERGE

Chief Development Officer and Principal

Jon Buerge is Chief Development Officer at Urban Villages, Inc. In this capacity, Jon is responsible for real estate development, strategic positioning for all real estate assets, corporate growth strategies, and new company acquisitions. Previously, Jon oversaw real estate and expansion activities for several national restaurant chains as director of development and real estate for CraftWorks Restaurants & Breweries.

Jon earned a juris doctorate and Master of Business Administration from the University of Colorado, where he served as both student body president and chair of the CU Honor Council. He received his bachelor's degree in economics and business finance.

Jon currently serves as the Chair of the Denver Business Improvement District and is on the board of directors for the LoDo District. He is also a member of Denver's Public Realm Committee and the 16th Street Mall Redevelopment Steering Committee.